

IF I AM AN IMMIGRANT WITHOUT DOCUMENTATION, CAN I STILL GO TO MY CONSULATE?

Yes. The consulate local offices are intended to support all Mexicans abroad, regardless of their immigration status.

1. Particularly, your local office can provide you with the following:

Consular guidance

Guidance and information about a lawyer or legal office that can provide legal advice and support

Advice related to your immigration status

Ensure that the authorities do not infringe on your rights

Information about your rights and obligations in the country you are in

Help you contact your relatives in case you need it due to your legal situation

2. Provide information about doctors and hospitals; and if needed, contact your relatives and inform them about your health status.
