

DO YOU NEED LEGAL ASSISTANCE?

THESE ARE THE PROGRAMS THAT CAN HELP YOU

Did you know that...

...there are reliable legal aid and assistance programs that are endorsed by the Mexican consulate and can support you if you have a problem?

The programs that can help you are:

- PALE (External Legal Advising Program)

Its objective is to provide legal assistance to fellow nationals facing legal processes in the US

- PROTEJE (Specialized Legal Program)

This program focuses on high-impact litigations and collective lawsuits in case of violations to the human rights of Mexican people

- MCLAP (Mexican Capital Legal Assistance Program)

Its objective is to provide assistance and guidance to Mexicans sentenced to death penalty in the US

- Consultant Attorneys

Their objective is to provide specialized assistance to diplomatic and consular authorities, as well as to fellow nationals who require it

Go to your nearest consulate and ask which of these programs adapts better to your situation.

Watch out! Do not be fooled

Some people pretend to be accredited lawyers or immigrant experts when they are not, so it is important to confirm their experience. It is better to go to the consulate to receive free assistance for your case.
