

WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE I MUST FOLLOW TO TAKE MY CHILD WITH ME ONCE I GET DEPORTED?

If you have been arrested and you want to take your child with you after deportation, you should make sure that the deportation officer and the immigration judge are aware of this decision

Bear in mind that the process to take him/her with you will depend on whether your child is in a foster home or under the custody of another person and if he/she has the documentation needed to travel
