

WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE I SHOULD FOLLOW IF I WANT MY CHILDREN TO STAY IN THE UNITED STATES ONCE I HAVE BEEN DEPORTED?

If you are in the process of being deported or if you have already been deported and you decide that it is best for your children to stay in the United States, you must appoint a legal guardian or a person willing to look after them and have legal custody in the United States. This person will make decisions regarding their education, medical care and travel.
